

Dr. Dorothy J. Edwards

President & Founder, Alteristic

Dr. Dorothy J. Edwards is the President and founder of Alteristic, a non-profit dedicated to preventing interpersonal violence and aggression by helping organizations foster safe, healthy, and respectful environments.

She is the creator of the Green Dot Bystander Intervention Strategy, a program adopted both nationally and internationally across diverse sectors—including construction, military, hospitality, education, healthcare, entertainment, and government. Green Dot has been extensively evaluated and shown to reduce multiple forms of interpersonal violence while positively shifting institutional norms.

With over 25 years of experience as a trainer and consultant, Dr. Edwards supports organizations in capacity building, program implementation, and strategic planning.
