

RYAN BERRY

Executive Director, Design & Construction Management, Providence

St. Joseph Health

Passionate and solution-driven director with 20+ years of experience in project management for leading healthcare organizations. Expertise includes construction oversight, client relations, and strategic planning. Proven track record of leading diverse teams and exceeding performance targets workflows while promoting a positive culture in fast-paced work environments. Adept at cultivating relationships with team members and multilevel stakeholders to drive organizational growth.