

Abegail Banaga

Procurement Analyst, Small Business Office | US Army Corps of Engineers, Los Angeles District

Abegail is a Procurement Analyst for the Small Business Office at the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) Los Angeles District. In this role, she is a trusted strategic advisor to the District Commander, Deputy of Small Business Programs, and leadership teams on federal acquisition policies, regulatory compliance, and statutory directives. A passionate advocate for small business inclusion, Abegail leads district-wide efforts to identify and establish set-aside opportunities for the Small Business Program. She works proactively with project managers and technical staff to bridge the gap between defense acquisition requirements and industry capabilities.

With more than 24 years of public sector acquisition, marketing, and event leadership across the USACE, U.S. Navy, and U.S. Marine Corps, Abegail brings deep operational insight and cross-agency experience. Her prior background includes directing major sponsorship and event portfolios for Navy Region Southwest and Marine Corps Community Services at MCAS Miramar in San Diego, CA.

Abegail holds a B.A. in Business Economics from the University of California, Santa Barbara. Outside of federal service, she enjoys knitting blankets, spending time with her two dogs—a Husky and a Maltipoo—and cheering on the San Diego Padres and Los Angeles Chargers.
