

Victoria Leonido

Supplier Diversity Program Manager | SoCalGas

Victoria Leonido is a Supplier Diversity Program Manager representing Southern California Gas Company and San Diego Gas & Electric. In this role, she advances opportunities for small, local, and diverse businesses, builds relationships with community-based organizations, and supports technical assistance programs.

Victoria joined SoCalGas in 2018 as a Senior Category Management Advisor in Supply Chain Management and transitioned to her current role as Supplier Diversity Program Manager in 2023.

Before entering the energy industry, Victoria established a diverse legal and procurement background across public and private sectors. She began her career in Washington, D.C., practicing law and later serving as Corporate Counsel for GTSI Corp. and as an Acquisitions Attorney for Nextel Communications. After returning to Los Angeles to be closer to family, she worked as a Contracts Manager and Small Business/DVBE Advocate at the California State University Office of the Chancellor and previously served as Senior Manager of Contracts Management and Supplier Diversity Champion at Time Warner Cable.

Victoria holds a Juris Doctor from Northeastern University School of Law in Boston and a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology, with emphases in Women's Studies and Asian American Studies, from the University of California, Los Angeles. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Asian American Drug Abuse Program.

A proud mom to her 17-year-old son who recently started his freshmen year at UC Merced, Victoria enjoys nature walks, travel, and quality time with loved ones.
