Alex Etchen

Vice President of Construction Advocacy and Risk Management Associated General Contractors of America

Alex Etchen is the Vice President of Construction Advocacy and Risk Management at the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of America. In this role, Alex leads all AGC's advocacy efforts with Congress, federal agencies, and the courts. Before being named Vice President of Construction Advocacy and Risk Management, he served as the Senior Director for Infrastructure Advancement at AGC.

Prior to joining AGC, Alex served as Associate Administrator for Highway Policy and External Affairs for the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) at the U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT). He also worked in Congress for nearly seven years; first for a Member of Congress from Idaho and then on the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

Originally from Ligonier, Pa., Alex earned a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from the Pennsylvania State University and a Master of Business Administration from the Johns Hopkins University.
