

Keith Owens

Assistant Vice President, Capital Development
Ontario International Airport

Long Beach State – BS Civil Engineering 1983, Started at Port of Los Angeles 4.5 years as a project engineer.

Prior to flying over to the LAX, He became a Professional Engineer! Keith spent over 18 years at the Department of Airports, City of LA (Now LAWA) – as project engineer and project manager.

Keith left LAWA in 2006 and joined Western Municipal Water District (WMWD) in Riverside, and he spent 4.5 years as their Development Services Manager.

He joined Burns & McDonnell in 2011 as an Aviation Project Manager and spent 6 years as a private aviation engineering consultant.

He joined the OIAA in July 2017 as their Engineering Manager and become the Director of Program Management in September 2018.

Currently in July 2026, Keith was promoted to Assistant Vice President for Capital Development. He is now responsible for ensuring active capital improvement projects progress through planning, design, environmental review, procurement, and construction in accordance with established schedules and budgets.