

Felipe Fuentes

Chief Executive Officer
Pacific Coast Capitol Advisors

Felipe Fuentes is the Chief Executive Officer of Pacific Coast Capitol Advisors. He is a proven and tested leader with twenty five years of experience in various capacities in both state and local government.

Felipe most recently served as a member of the Los Angeles City Council. Elected in 2013, he chaired the Energy & Environment Committee, overseeing the Los Angeles Bureau of Sanitation and the Los Angeles Department of Water & Power. He also served on the Planning & Land use and Housing committees.

In 2007, Felipe was elected in a special election to the California State Assembly where he chaired the committee on Utilities & Commerce and eventually the influential Appropriations Committee. He authored and influenced policy decisions in the Legislature spanning every aspect of state government.

Prior to running for Assembly, Felipe served as Chief of Staff to then City Council President Alex Padilla. Prior to that, he served as Deputy Mayor overseeing the San Fernando Valley. He served as Mayor James Hahn's liaison to the Department of Building & Safety, Sanitation Bureau, and the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment among others.

Serving legislative and executive branches, as well as the state and local government, has given Felipe the education and experience to be successful in public and governmental affairs. Because of this, he has established a wide network of allies, operatives, and experts across California.

Through his career, Felipe has worked on scores of candidate and issue campaigns. He has a reputation for a "hands on" approach to campaign work, and is literate in polling, media, communications and focus group methodology.

In addition to Felipe's governmental experience, he has an MBA from the Graziado School of Business and Management, Pepperdine University, and holds a BA in Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles.

