AWARD & ELIGIBILITY

The AGC of California's prestigious Owner of the Year Award recognizes a public or private owner who demonstrates an outstanding commitment to fostering strong, collaborative relationships between owners and contractors. This esteemed award highlights those who prioritize and strive for excellence through partnership, collaboration, and advancements in the industry at large.

Requirements

1. Owner may be public or private.
2. Submission may be made by either Owner or Contractor.
3. Owner must have active construction projects and procurement.
4. Owner should engage with the Association (owner/Contractor liaison meetings, speak at association events, board meetings, etc.).
5. Owner must have a positive track record of collaboration and partnering within the industry.

Submission should include the following:

One-page narrative outlining the various ways in which the Owner values the relationship between Owner and Contractor and how the Owner strives for excellence through partnership, collaboration and advancements to the industry at large.
